

Board members

Anne Wildeman

Anne joined the board as a co-optee in September 2021.

Anne's has family members who have lived in Newport and surrounding areas and appreciates that as a major employer, the association is crucial to the economic future of the area.

Anne believes that it is essential that the resources are made available for key projects to go ahead whilst listening to the needs of customers who live in our communities.

Anne has been an executive director of medium and large housing associations for the last 25 years and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Housing. Anne has experience in managing change and implementing the diversity agenda, specifically within housing.

