

Board members

Kevin Ward

Kevin has been a board member since 2017 and chair of the remuneration committee since September 2021.

Kevin is committed to putting customers at the heart of everything we do by ensuring that people want to live in the communities for which we are responsible.

As chair of the Remuneration Committee, Kevin wants to ensure the association is an employer of choice which attracts and retains the best people by delivering the right package of rewards and benefits within the association's financial framework.

Kevin lives in Newport and previously held the post of editor of the South Wales Argus before setting up his own media and management consultancy business in 2017.

